The answer that he will give will be his valuant appearance in the floid. He is not away from Greece If he can help it. And while there is no disputing the fact that the docadence of athleties was an acconpaniment to the decay of Greeian art and literature the modern Creek is on the up grade and is doing wonders in the direct tion of the reassertion of the worth and dignity of the glavious race from which be descended. The preliminary contests for the purpose of selecting champions to represent Greece in the Olympic games were begun March 21 and continued several days under the personal supervision of King George, Crown Prince Constanting and Prince George and in the presence of from 40,000 to 50,000 spectators, who gathered in the similium daily. The Marathon race was also rehearsed, the witner covering the distance in 3 hours slow, representing memorable scenes from Growk history, and a series of gala repre-sentations of the dramatic masterpieces of J. M. KNIG the world, beginning with a Sophoclean tragedy and ending with Wagner's "Lo-hengrin." There will be, furthermore, a special Olympic ode, compared for the oc-casion by the modern Greek composer Samaris produced by a mension chorus and orobestra.

And so we find history again repeating as in the older time, the center of unive sal interest. The nations of the earth have assembled themselves together, the athletes are ready and straining for the struggle, and it only running for King George to life his hand, as did his angust ancestors, and say, "Let the games go on Walter J.
